

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR FREDERICK COUNTY

IN EQUITY.

NO. 15015 EQUITY.

Irving E. Staley, Executor of the estate of Charles A. Staley, deceased, et al. Plaintiffs, vs. Mollie M. Staley, George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage, et al. Defendants.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of the real estate of which Charles A. Staley, late of Frederick County, died seized and possessed.

The bill states that Charles A. Staley died testate, seized and possessed of two valuable farms in Frederick County, Maryland, and a valuable lot with improvements thereon in Frederick City, in said Frederick County, which said real estate is particularly described in the bill of complaint; that the said Charles A. Staley did, by his last will, appoint Irving E. Staley to be the Executor of his estate, who has duly qualified and is now acting as such; that after a special bequest of $100.00 to the Mount Olivet Cemetery, and small bequests of property in kind to Charles Irving Staley and Joseph Robert Staley, the said Charles A. Staley gave all the rest and residue of his estate unto his wife, Mollie M. Staley, for the term of her natural life and no longer, and after her death the same to be sold and the net proceeds distributed as provided in said will: $4,000.00 to the Evangelical Reformed Church of Frederick; $500.00 to George W. and Agnes Hoffman Orphanage of Littlestown, Pennsylvania; and the residue of said estate to Frances C. Smith, Stanley Vincent Samer, Charles Irving Staley and Joseph Robert Staley.

That the said Mollie M. Staley renounced said will and elected to take the share allowed to widows by the laws of Maryland; that the personal estate is insufficient to pay all the special bequests and the surviving widow her share of said estate, and it is necessary to sell the real estate to make distribution; that
